

MODELS IN ECONOMICS: FINDING SIMPLICITY IN A COMPLEX WORLD

28th September, 11:00 am – 4:30 pm
29th September, 10:30 am – 5:00 pm

 Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1
Skylounge

Models are some of the most important tools in current-day economics, but the practice is not without its difficulties. The intricate conditions making up the environment of any real-world phenomenon can never be perfectly included in a representation.

A fatal flaw leaving misleading gaps or rather the greatest advantage when used to discover economic laws?
